

A Letter from Fran

Dear Friends,

Welcome to our annual Cabaret, Les Girls. It has been a very different world for the past couple of years and tonight we should celebrate life. We look forward to another evening of exciting, witty, and tantalizing fun for a great cause.

The National Breast Cancer Coalition (NBCC) has accomplished a great deal over the past 30 years and has worked tirelessly to identify and eliminate the obstacles to ending breast cancer. We have tackled the big issues in breast cancer, challenged the status quo, and faced controversy head on. We continue to have a real impact. The reality is that in this country alone, this year we will lose 43,600 women and 530 men to breast cancer. And worldwide that number will be 685,000 women. We can all agree that this is unacceptable.

Since 1991, NBCC has been at the vanguard of the breast cancer movement, elevating breast cancer to an issue of national significance. NBCC brought about a federal breast cancer research program that has resulted in over $3.9 billion for the worldwide scientific community. We empower women and men, through advocate education and training programs, to become a unified voice to save lives. And through our advocate-led Artemis Project®, we lead a collaboration of exceptional scientists and dedicated advocates who focus on research to prevent women and men from getting breast cancer in the first place and stop it from metastasizing and taking lives. We do all this with one goal in mind — ending breast cancer.

We hope you enjoy Les Girls and the satisfaction of knowing that our work and our success are only possible because of your support. On behalf of the hundreds of breast cancer organizations and tens of thousands of advocates who are part of NBCC, as well as the more than 3.8 million individuals in the United States living with breast cancer, those at risk, and their family and friends, thank you for your support and generosity.

I also want to congratulate and thank the Les Girls committee members who helped plan and organize this evening and whose work ensures the event's success year after year. We are grateful to you for all that you do and your unwavering support. And, many thanks to our honorees, Alec Call and Bryan Johns for their many years of support for our cause and Sherry Goldman for her advocacy on behalf of NBCC. We also share our deep appreciation to the crew and members of the cast, all of whom donated their time. Thank you for sharing your extraordinary talents with us and making this evening such a success.

Sincerely,

Fran Visco

PROUDLY HONORS

Alec Call AND Bryan Johns
WITH THE
2021 Leadership Award

AND

Sherry Goldman
WITH THE
2021 Grassroots Advocacy Award

Thank you for your commitment to saving lives and to ending breast cancer for all of us.

2021 Leadership Award

Alec Call

Mr. Call serves as cofounder, Executive Vice President and COO for INNOVATIVE SKINCARE® (iS CLINICAL, ICON by iS, iS CANCER CARE). Having been brought up in an entrepreneurial environment, Mr. Call has always had a profound interest in all things creative, such as the arts and design, as well as an affinity for numbers and organization. But above all, Mr. Call has always felt compelled to try to make a positive impact in the world.

After serving in multiple positions within the family business, Call Jewelers, Inc., Mr. Call struck out to make a mark through the transformative world of the performing arts. Leadership roles often accompanied his entertainment career path and he ultimately served in the entertainment division of the Walt Disney Company representing the American Guild of Variety Artists as a union deputy and contract negotiator.

Mr. Call feels his life's real work and passion began with the origin of INNOVATIVE SKINCARE, formed with his life partner Bryan Johns. INNOVATIVE SKINCARE's simple mission — to help others — inspires every decision and creates a unique culture of passion and care. With a commitment to evidenced-based science and quality, iS Clinical products deliver on the promise of health and well-being for people globally.

The Company's self-funded charitable iS Cancer Care Program focuses on providing the underserved with education, products and relief from the skin ravages of chemo and radiation therapies. The Company also supports Stars for Stripes, the ACLU and many others, but the greatest charitable emphasis for nearly 20 years has been focused on the National Breast Cancer Coalition due to the alignment with principles, such as evidence-based science, honesty, action and passion. NBCC's revolutionary programs, such as the Artemis Project, are what is needed to end breast cancer once and for all. Mr. Call is honored to serve on the Board of Trustees for the National Breast Cancer Coalition Fund and is truly proud of the positive impact they are making in the world.

2021 Leadership Award

Bryan Johns

Bryan Johns is cofounder with partner Alec Call of INNOVATIVE SKINCARE® (iS CLINICAL, ICON by iS, iS CANCER CARE), a leading global cosmeceutical skincare company founded on the principles of emotional and physical well-being, ethics, science, and philanthropy. Bryan serves as CEO/President while leading product development; focusing on skin health, disease treatment, and aging.

A passionate collector of golden age Hollywood history and memorabilia, Bryan has been working with the new Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences Museum on special exhibitions and content.

With aligned principles of passion, action, and scientific validation, Bryan has been an ardent supporter of the National Breast Cancer Coalition and its fearless leader Fran Visco for almost twenty years. Mr. Johns, Mr. Call and INNOVATIVE SKINCARE have been the long-time title sponsor of the annual Les Girls event, dedicated to making each year's event more successful and impactful than ever. He also serves on the Board of Trustees for NBCC to help further their extremely important mission to end breast cancer once and for all.

With two granddaughters and two more on the way, Bryan wants them to grow up in a world that doesn't have to worry about breast cancer.

The 2021 Grassroots Advocacy Award

Sherry Goldman

It has been 40 years since Sherry Goldman began her journey as a medical provider in the area of women's health. She had her family at a very young age and has now been married to Barry for over 50 years with a blended family of 7 children and lots of extended family. After she had her last child, she went back to school, earning an RN and a bachelor's degree and then on to a master's nurse practitioner program at UCLA in women's health. She joined an Ob-Gyn practice, until Susan Love, M.D. asked her to join the team to open a new breast center at UCLA. Susan introduced Sherry to NBCC very shortly after its inception. The people in the organization stole her heart, instantly, with their advocacy work and determination to end breast cancer. Sherry was diagnosed with breast cancer after she became involved in the cause and remained at UCLA for nearly 19 years. She became more and more involved with NBCC by representing UCLA on the NBCC Board of Directors. During that time, she took Project LEAD[®], mentored other advocates, served as an advocate reviewer for the Department of Defense Breast Cancer Research Program for breast cancer research projects, and served on various committees, including the Les Girls Committee. Ten years ago, Armando Giuliano recruited Sherry to the Cedars-Sinai Breast Center, and she now represents Cedars on the NBCC Board of Directors. She is dedicated to her breast cancer patients and advocacy work. One of her greatest wishes is to see the end of breast cancer in her lifetime. She personally feels the only organization who has come close to achieving this goal is NBCC and is proud to be a part of it.

We are very proud and honored to support the incredible work of the NBCC.
Love, Alec, Bryan, and our entire iS Clinical family

Dear Sherry,

You are an amazing, phenomenal woman and tireless champion for women. You have dedicated your life's work to the early detection of breast cancer and breast health. We have witnessed your clinical expertise powered by your incredible knowledge and professionalism transform the lives of women who were often in the depths of sorrow to warrior women as you led them through the maze of breast cancer treatment and recovery.

Congratulations on this well deserved honor for all that you have done and will continue to do. We are so proud of you and your achievements. Never give up this fight for all of us!

The National Breast Cancer Coalition is a collaboration of activists, survivors, researchers, grassroots groups, and national organizations that have come together as disruptive innovators for social change. NBCC links hundreds of organizations and tens of thousands of individuals from across the country into a dynamic, diverse coalition that gives breast cancer a meaningful voice in Washington, DC, and state capitals, in laboratories and health care institutions, and in local communities everywhere. NBCC increases funding and leads efforts for innovative breast cancer research; monitors how research funds are spent; expands access to quality health care for all; and ensures that trained advocates influence all decision making in breast cancer.
